

Secrets of Vault 27

Calling all entrepreneurship and finance enthusiasts! Boy, do we have the tribulation for you. “Secrets of Vault 27” is a simulative stock market experience, imitating the chaos, thrill and reward of investment and trading in the real world. Here is your chance to become the Wolf of Wall Street of BNA and gain heuristic experience whilst developing your analytical, decision making and risk-taking skills.

From the eyes of an outsider, the vault is merely an accessory—a meaningless symbol. But when the numbers twist and turns arise, only the keen observers will gain the key of true mastery. Strategy and innovation should serve as your sword and shield, in a field where the subtlest of moves can alter the course of your entire portfolio.

Overview

Trading will take place on Beaconhouse Stock Exchange (BSX) and participants must keep in mind the following instructions;

- Delegations will be managing one investment portfolio over the span of three days.
- Delegates are required to respond to 15 market updates throughout the tribulation.
- They must make investment decisions based on dynamic conditions and fluctuating share prices.
- All teams start with equal capital and a portfolio of 8–10 companies, with the goal of maximizing net worth by the end of Day 3.

Mystery of Vault 27

The market is ruthless, its moves: unpredictable. Luck won't serve you here, instead you must learn to rely on your data analysis and pattern recognition skills.

Master the art of stock exchange and revel in the reward
—we assure you, it is worth the risk.

Vault 27 serves as a recurring element—its number may relate to a pattern, clue, or strategic advantage that delegates can unlock. Solve the puzzle or go back empty handed, it's all in your hands. Are you ready to take risks and unveil the arcane that is Vault 27?
